Maya Santos,
61 years old

Maya has lived and worked in Canada for 14 years. She has worked in a telecommunications company and has contributed to a pension. She is now close to retirement age, with very little knowledge of the income she can expect after retiring.

She is unsure of the government benefits she will qualify for or how much her pension income will be. She is worried about how she will cover her future living and aging-related costs. She needs help taking the first steps to explore her financial plan and future expenses.
